FACULTY AND STAFF NEWS . . .

Allison DeLaney, MA, BCC, MPH . . . JOINS FACULTY

Allison DeLaney serves as a chaplain for Pediatrics, Neonatology, and Women’s Health units at the VCU Medical Center. She holds a B.S. from the University of Florida, a M.A. from Catholic Theological Union, and a M.P.H. from VCU. She completed her Chaplain Residency training at Loyola Hospital in Maywood, Illinois in 2005 and became a Board Certified Chaplain in the spring of 2006 with the National Association of Catholic Chaplains.

Prior to joining the faculty and staff at VCU, Allison served for 8 years as Chaplain and Bereavement Coordinator at Hospice House and Support Care of Williamsburg. In 2016, she was selected to be in the first cohort of the Chaplain Research Fellowship Program, part of a John Templeton Foundation initiative to promote research literacy in chaplains. Allison dedicated two years of full-time study to complete a Masters in Public Health at VCU.

Her passions include finding creative paths to healing rooted in patient and caregiver wisdom, and enhancing interdisciplinary team wellness. Her home is with her husband and two children. She enjoys the inner stillness that comes from walking, hiking, white water rafting, and eating chocolate!
